

Woodward & Lothrop

New York-WASHINGTON-Paris.

Elegant Model Gowns At Reduced Prices.

WE have less than a dozen Women's Very Handsome Imported Washington, backed up by a beauty Model Gowns, which we now offer at very great reductions of the most brilliant audiences that has a lika-li, my dark eyed Al-ka-li, I know that you'll be true. An when I return sister, Miss Newell, Miss Tuckerman, and Miss Hagner. ing been secured for our recent Easter Opening, and having been displayed with the utmost care. One is a Pastel Blue Chiffon Voile, by Washington Junior League of the National Junior Republic, one of the pet Love," by Mr. Scantling, Miss Spofford. charities of Washington, and this fact, and the American Girls, which was folanother is of Maize, Voile, and Taffeta, a Combination Suit, by Paquin; another is a French Combination Suit of Apple Green and Cinnamon Brown Voile and Silk, by Bischoff-David; another is a Natural Shan- to fill the house. Every box was taken, tung Princess Two-piece Costume, by Callot; all of them are creations and there was not a seat to be had in of famous Parisian modistes, and their latest productions.

These elegant costumes are suitable for wear at Easter Weddings, Luncheons, Bridge Parties, and the various social functions which im- last night needs no sort of an apology. mediately follow Lent, when women of fashion vie with one another in Many professional companies have not the wearing of charming spring gowns.

We invite your inspection of these one-of-a-kind exclusive gar- gloriously, danced with a vim, and went ments-they have no duplicates.

$89.00. Was $125.00.

$69.00. Was $99.00.

jade and old silver buttons.

$75.00. Was $120.00.

A THREE-PIECE SUIT OF | A PASTEL BLUE CHIFFON CAFE AU LITE FAILLE SILK VOILE-A GRECIAN MODEL. -A DRECOLL MODEL. THE BY WORTH. The skirt is a novskirt is a draped classic style; elty plaited style over matched tafwaist of filet net, hand-embroidered feta; the long Grecian coat is elab- the center of the house left his seat, in silk; the lingerie touches given orately trimmed with India lace, hurled upon the stage. The example was by fine swiss embroidery. Over this hand-embroidered in blue shaded is slipped a graceful coat of the morning glories run with gold the other boxes, from every part of the silk, finished with handsome orna-threads. ments made of the silk.

$125.00. Was $200.00.

PAQUIN, has skirt of maize col- BISCHOFF-DAVID MODEL; ored voile over matched taffeta, fin- full plaited skirt with broad bias ers had to call for assistance, and men in ished off at the bottom with a broad satin band, hand-embroidered in and trimmed with blue braid and the more so as the chorus of them that it was impossible to pick in gold fillets. Here Mr. Green made his of them call up the more so as the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of the chorus of them call up the more so as the chorus of th self color. Coat La Empire style, large white Irish crochet buttons. made of the maize satin, handsomely braided in self color and finished with a vest of Japanese hand embroidery in brilliant colors.

$95.00. Was $125.00.

STRIPED VOILE, black and sian hand embroidery finished with plot, it did not really need it with such win, Cole, Messrs. Ecker, Crist, Church, plot, it did not really need it with such win, Cole, Messrs. Ecker, Crist, Church, plot, it did not really need it with such win, Cole, Messrs. Ecker, Crist, Church, plot, it did not really need it with such win, Cole, Messrs. Ecker, Crist, Church, plot, it did not really need it with such win, Cole, Messrs. Ecker, Crist, Church, plot, it did not really need it with such win, Cole, Messrs. and embroidered in pottery blue. Skirt is French kilt model over white taffeta drop skirt; coat long semi-fitting, with pointed fronts finished with black satin buttons; collar and cuffs and lingerie jabot SHANTUNG COSTUME — BY chorus singing a stirring air: "Happy in coat of sheer lawn.

$65.00. Was $95.00.

A FRENCH COMBINATION artist gives. The princess is draped Stead, Van Loan, Cady, Porter, Mason, SUIT - A BISCHOFF-DAVID high, giving the Grecian effect, and Craig, and Gallagher. MODEL. Skirt of big plaid voile in apple green and cinnamon brown; pottery blue and gold buttons. The plaited skirt trimmed with a broad band of cinnamon brown faille silk. The show started off with a rush, and it kept up a merry pace all through, for strayed.

The show started off with a rush, and it kept up a merry pace all through, for sooner had the opening chorus died away when on came A. F. Hopkins as Doe Bunch, George O'Connor (who was destined to make the comedy hit of the show) as Kid Harrison, and Charles G. And I'd like to have you meet my family. The pointed cut semi-fitting coat is tones and white and copper. The made of the silk and trimmed with most original and exclusive model they had an excellent trio, "Gee, You're plaid voile and silk-covered buttons. we have shown this season.

$72.00. Was $97.00. Third floor-G st.

Special Sale of Women's Pumps.

WE have just closed out from the maker, at a very low price, two lots of Women's Colonial Pumps, and offer them at the manufacturer's price. They are fresh, perfect goods, made on the very latest models, and are very special values.

Colonial Pumps, with prominent Calfskin Colonial Pumps, with tongue and neat brass buckle; made tongue and neat gun metal buckle, on the new short vamp last, with made on the new short vamp last, Goodyear welt sole and Cuban with Goodyear weit sole and Cuban $2.50 a pair. Value, $3.50. Third floor-Tenth st.

Lot 1-Women's Patent Kidskin | Lot 2-Women's Gun Metal

$85.00. Was $125.00.

$2.50 a pair. Value, $3.50.

Special Sale of French Corsets.

WE offer the ones, twos, and threes of several lines of our French Corsets at reduced prices. They are elegant, high-class models, consisting of coutils, silk broche, figured batiste, &c. Some are embroidered in dainty colors, and embellished with laces and ribbons. All are boned with real whalebone. These corsets are perfect, and there are all sizes in combined lots.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

Parame:

Sapphire:

Third floor-Eleventh st.

$4.00. Were $5.50. $3.50. Were $9.75. Were $8.50. $5.00. $4.75. Were $8.50. $8.50. Were $13.50. $5.00. Were $10.00. $10.00. Were $15.00.

Lily of France: $4.75. Were $9.50. $6.00. Were $12.00.

815 10th Street N. W., "PHONE

"Prince of Parcheesi" Delights Enthusiastic House.

BEAUTY CHORUS CAPTIVATES

Amateurs in Musical Comedy Give One of the Most Successful Performances Ever Witnesed in a House Packed by Society Folk, amateur performance given for charity in Washington than that at the Belasco There lived a cowboy bold and his name was Bronco chorus of young ladies, was given to one the Washington Junior League of the prominent in Washington society, served the house, save in the upper gallery, and even this was comfortably filled.

It was an amateur performance, but his is not said apologetically. The show ione so well as did this fine aggregation of society girls and young men who sang through the whole show with a verve and a dash that was simply amazing.

And one of the prettiest sights that as been seen in a Washington theater n many a day was that at the conclusion third act-just as Miss Olga Converse was armed with two huge bouquets, which he contagious. From the left-hand stage box came a large basket of blooms; from nouse, came bouquets. And this was the signal-all impromptu-for the ushers, who, in a room at the back of the audi torium, had great quantities of flowers sent in by admirers of those astonishing chorus girls and principals. Down the A BLUE AND WHITE aisles came the ushers, each bearing all A COMBINATION SUIT, BY STRIPED CHICHINETTE - A the flowers he could carry. They were handed onto the stage, thrown on the stage -and way to get them there. The ush-

> A COMBINATION SUIT, with plaited skirt of blue and green plaid voile, trimmed with a blue band of Evans, and the music by Milton W. Lusk.
>
> The book is by William Kendall on singing they might have been doing it yet, so enthusiastic were the encores. taffeta; Directoire coat of blue tafnusic is particularly catchy and pleasing, and it gives a fine opportunity to both the gentlemen and ladies in the musical mous sunbonnets. The song went: omedy. The first act takes place outside A TWO-PIECE NATURAL the royal palace on the Island of Kabosh, and when the curtain rises it finds the CALLOT. A princess gown with Little Too Foo." This was sung with long coat. The princess is made Slack, A. Slack, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. wonderfully simple, but the degree Gough, the Misses Marguerita Morse, of simple elegance that the French Milliken, Goodwin, the Messrs. Townsend,

> > The show started off with a rush, and a Great Old King," with an eccentric > > girls, another segment of the chorus consisting of the Misses Collins, Eleanore Ridgely, Helen Downing, Vera Downing,

To Visitors

CTRANGERS in the city are invited to visit this store, Sole Agents for the Original Washington Souvenir Spoons.

GALT & BRO., Established Over a Century, Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,

1107 Penna. Ave.

What Do You Desire for Your Table?

HERE are hundreds of toothsome Table Delicacies and substantials here, many of which are not obtainable elsewhere. Make this your headquarters for table supplies. Lowest prices for THE BEST.

D'No finer Coffee produced than our blend of Java and Mocha, 38c lb. G. G. Cornwell & Son, Wholesale and Retail Grocers. 1410-16 Penna. Ave.

Freund's, Quality Ice Cream, Ices, and Small Fancy Cakes

Alice Shepard, Darlington, and Mrs. Randall Hagner. My, but they looked stunning, and if Henry W. Savage could get a chorus as well drilled and as good to look at, he would pay almost any price for it. They came on singing "We've Landed Here in Old Kabosh." then came one of the really big hits of he show, "Alkali," the solo sung by

He was backed up by a chorus sisting of Misses Trescott, Stephanie Trescott, Isabel Magruder, Woodward, Curtin, Polly Mason, Hester Shepard, Sadie Murray, the Messrs. Baxter, Wardwell, Jones, Green, Sincerbeaux, Reamey, Hopkins, and Spofford.

"Alkali" was well sung and beautifully Playhouse of the National Capital. staged. The giffs were dresses as cowgings and sombreros, and the men be-hind them held lariats with which, at the end of the song, they lassed the girls and so, at the conclusion, went dancing off the stage. Here is a verse

The performance was for the benefit of I'll have dough to burn-and I can marry my Al-ka-li.

song, written and sung by Mr. Scantling, a good, stirring, patriotic air called "The Land I Love."

Here Mrs. P. Lee Phillips, the prima donna of the show, and one of its chief attractions, had her first chance with a beautiful song, magnificently sung, "My Garden That Blooms for You."

Mrs. Phillips has a magnificent voice, in clear tone, and she uses it well, so that

The appearance of Miss Olga Con- M. Gilibert. verse on the stage was the signal for another outburst of applause. She is the personification of grace and dainti-

If I remember rightly, sir, you told me long ago

CHORUS.

I think you'd fall in love with Mary,
I think you'd fall in love with Sue;
I think you'd change your mind completely,
As a man will often do.
I think you'd fall in love with Sarah,
And you'd lose your heart to Loo;
I think you'd marry any little girlie
If you thought sho'd marry you

An awfully good song followed, "Little A BROCHE RIBBON feta, with collar and cuffs of Rus-book contains many funny lines and situ-backed up by Mrs. Gough, Mrs. Wheeler. an aggregation of talent and beauty. The music is particularly catchy and pleasing girls quaintly dressed in gingham frocks with flaring red stockings, and their bashful faces were half concealed by enor-

A little country maiden to the city came one day, met before."

Said he: "Oh, yes; I knew you way back home."

And then this little maid said: "I'm very much afraid.

It was wrong for me to come up here alone."

And then this chappie said:

CHORUS.

Make a change in your name, little maid,

One of the prettiest and daintiest numbers in the whole opera followed. It was sung by Miss Spofford, who, during the Then came the vivacious American three acts, changed three times into dif> company waltzing on deck, there were a set from the various chapters, who will number of clever specialties. The first look after the comfort of the guests. was "The Old-time Girl," sung by Mr. Gough, assisted by a number of ladies who appeared as Indian maidens; old-fashioned crinoline girls, and finally Miss noon, giving their many friends an op-Ridgely and Mrs. Randall Hagner, as portunity of meeting her daughters, Mrs.

Then came a dainty Japanese dance by Miss Spofford; the Spanish dancer and ter season with them. singer, Senorita Juanita, by Miss Miller, and imitations by Miss Collins. These were astonishingly clever, and profesup, in response to an encore, with an week.

Mr. Elmore gave a clever imitation of Louis Mann, the Dutch comedian, in daughter, Miss Shonts, are to sail northwest. "The Telephone Girl," and Mr. George O'Connor again took the center of the stage with a glorious coon song, which the whole company cake-walked. The finale was a dance by Miss Converse, a dance that was so dainty and clever that it beggars description. evoked torrents of applause and started the flower shower already mentioned. and it was while people on the stage were gathering up the flowers that the entire company burst into the song, 'We're Going Back to Uncle Sam," and he curtain fell on the most successful mateur musical comedy that Washing ton has ever known. Without considering it at all as an amateur show, it is well worth going to see-on its merits. Its book is clever, its music is tuneful and whistly, and of the popular variety, the principals are all Scenically, "The Prince of Parcheesi" is pretentious, and the three scenes specially painted for this production are beautiful. Much of the success of the show depends the fine stage management and direcion of Mr. Percy Leech, who was ably assisted last night by Dr. Paul W. Evans.

Continued on Page 9, Column 3.

Society Attends Musicale at New Willard. Morven Thompson, who took the part of Baron and Baroness Mayor Enter-Ambassador and Baroness Hengelmuller-Wedding of Miss Ellsworth to Mr. D. L. Carlton.

Society was brilliantly represented at ley. the last of the Wilson-Greene morning musicales in the ballroom of the New player, gave the programme.

the season, had a party with her including Mrs. James R. Garfield, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, and her Mrs. Addensed, Mrs. Abert, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Rates, Mrs. Biddle, Mrs. Boardman, Mrs. C. J. Bell, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Brice, Mrs. J. L. Bell, Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Bulkeley, Mrs. Bolt, Mrs. Bacon, Mrs.

lowed immediately by an interpolated Miss Resside, occupied other boxes.

clear tone, and she uses it well, so that For next season artists already engaged last night she was encored again and are Miss Geraldine Farrar, M. Bonci, and Girl," was a sheer delight. The song itself is prettily clever, and she lent it great additional value by the quality of her acting. Here is a verse of it, with the song the solution of the sol Nicholas Fish, the Spanish Minister, the Greek Minister, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Beland Mr. and Mrs. Batchellers of Kenans, N. C.

The ceremony was performed at 8 Foundry M. E. Church. The color ter, Rosalie Sunderland, to James Howof palms and ferns, and yellow spring take place in June

The bride's attendants, members of her With the finale, "The Demijohn," the fraternity, the Delta, Delta, Delta, of the which will take place this evening in the Woman's College, of Baltimore, were fellow-graduates. They were Mrs. Ralph Parchees!" is a musical comedy in three out dancing and Mr. O'Connor have kept Jr., Mr. Curtis Ellsworth, of this city, and Mr. De Witt Ellsworth, of Water town, Mass., and Mr. Newton Perrins and Mr. Robert Tracy, of this city, The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white messaline, made in It has been urged by the management of modified empire style, with a wateau > white embroidered batiste, with yellow girdles and yellow flower wreaths in their

They carried backets of yellow After the church ceremony the bridal earty was entertained in the home of the ride in Girard street.

Miss Ellsworth had a party of students from her alma mater, the Woman's Col-lege in Baltimore, as her house guests "Why, I'm mighty glad to meet you, little country maid;
And to think that all alone 'way up to town you've strayed.

When you said 'how-dy do' and 'how are you,' oh complete delegation in Congress from for the wedding. There were also pres-North Carolina.

The bride and bridegroom left on a lace train for their wedding trip, and will be at home at Kenans, N. C. The bride's going-away gown was of brown cloth, with hat to match, tagon, one of the old historic houses of married to Mr. Walter White Boughton three acts, changed three times into dif-ferent Japanese costumes, kimonos of rare beauty, which she wore very effec-tively and quite in the native fashion. Her song, "Smiling Isle," she sang in a voice that was very winning and sweet, tively and quite in the native fashion. Her song, "Smiling Isle," she sang in a voice that was very winning and sweet, and England. The luncheon is given for and she was encored until she was tired. The picture she made in the half light, crouched in the center of the stage, wis-taria-clad, while the chorus outside re-ment to be erected at Arlington as a peated the chorus of her song, was highly memorial to the soldiers of the Confederacy buried there,

The luncheon will be served on Tues-which is considered one of the places of recognized interest.

The last act shows the deck of a battle ship, and after the opening chorus, which found all of the members of the tables will be in charge of the younger.

Mrs. Foster, wife of Gen. John W. Fos-American beauties-and they looked it, Dulles and Mrs. Lansing, who, with the Dulles and Mrs. Lansing, who, with the former's children, are spending the Eas-

Mrs. James R. Garfield, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, left yesterday evening at 8:15 o'clock for the benefit sional, almost, in their self-possession afternoon for a short visit to the country Miss Collins first gave an home of Dr. and Mrs. Wilmer. She will dren's League. The soloists will be Mme. imitation of Marle Dressler singing "A Great Big Girl Like Me;" then she gave an imitation of Anna Held, and wound up, in response to an encore, with an up, in response to an encore, with an imitation of Marle Dressler singing "A Great Big Girl Like Me;" then she gave an initation of Anna Held, and wound up, in response to an encore, with an or and will remain throughout the Mary Reamey, violin.

25c White Nearlinen, 19c Yard.

Wednesday, May 20, on the Adriatic. They will visit the Duke and Duchess de Chaulnes in their apartments in the Rue Hoche, Paris. They will all return to this country early in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Barry entertained last evening in honor of their silver wedding.

They had a family circle almost complete, the only absentee being their oldest son, Mr. James Richard Barry, who is at the Naval Academy, and could not obtain leave of absence at this time Miss Bonnie Barry, a debutante of the past season, Mr. Davis S. Barry, jr., who tain at Dinner in Honor of Austrian occasion, and Miss Cora Barry, all aided their parents in receiving.

Mrs. Barry wore a gown of white liberty satin trimmed with some rare old lace, made modified empire style. Miss Barry wore white silk, trimmed with Dresden ribbons. white sweet peas and lilies of the val-

The performance of the Mask and Wig Willard Hotel yesterday morning, when Club of the University of Pennsylvania, Mr. Claude Cunningham, barytone, of in "Uncle Sam's Ditch," will be given at New York, and Mr. Emile Ferir, viola the Belasco Theater Thursday evening April 36. The list of patrones Mrs. Roosevelt, who has had a box for distinguished one. It includes:

the Secretary of the Interior, and her sister, Miss Newell, Miss Tuckerman, and Miss Hagner.

Mrs. Matheson and her daughter and Mrs. Reeside, accompanied by Mrs. Dixon, wife of Senator Dixon; Mrs. Young, wife of Representative Young, of Michigan, and Miss Reaside, occupied other boxes.

The programme follows:

"Sunset," "Faithfu' Johnnie," "Bonnie Laddie, Highland Laddie," and "Song of the Flea," from Goethe's "Faust," Beethoven; "Chanson Celtique," C. Forsyth; "Minnelied" and "Song of the Flea," from Goethe's "Faust," Beethoven; "Chanson Celtique," C. Forsyth; "Minnelied" and "Sountag," Brahms; "Serenaic," W. H. Squire; "Danse Rustique," P. Hans; "Automne," Faure; "Au Clair de la Lune," Lulti; "Le Secret," Faust; "Le Sais tu Bien;" Pierne.

For next season artists already engaged are Miss Geraldine Farrar, M. Bonci, and M. Gilibert.

The Italian Ambassador and Baroness verse on the stage was the signal for another outburst of applause. She is the personification of grace and daintiness and her little dance in the first act, leading up to her song, "Any Little Girl." was a sheer delight. The song find out:

> Mrs. Isabel Ridgeley Bowie is entertålning her daughter, Mrs. William Oler mont, Miss Cockrell, Miss Williams, M. do Head, of Baltimore, who is here attendamaral, Prince Kretzulesco, Mr. Cora, ing the D. A. R. convention.

I've seen others who have thought the same as you.

Just because you've growing older, why, your heart's not getting solder;

If some girlie said she'd love you, I think I know what you'd do.

Miss Claudia Faison Ellsworth, daughter set is that of Miss Edna Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin Davis Ellstof Mr. and Mrs. Absalom B. Wells, to worth, formerly of North Carolina, was married last night to Mr. D. L. Carlton, Thomas W. Keller, of this city. It will be one of the early line weddings. be one of the early June weddings

> Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dalrymple have anclock, by Rev. Robert M. Moore, in nounced the engagement of their daughscheme was yellow and white, with banks and Wygant, of Iowa, the wedding to brilliant affair the organization has ever Smyser Cannon, of York, Pa., matron of given in Washington. This is their first charity ball, and there is every indica them all up, the more so as the chorus proceeded with its final song, and so they lay there, banked up knee-high, a veritable tribute of Flora to many God-desses of Beauty. It was a stirring scene.

But, as to the show. "The Prince of Parchees!" is a musical comedy in three out dancing and Mr. O'Connor have kery large.

Scarlet robes, the hair of the ladies bound in gold fillets. Here Mr. Green made his first appearance as the Prince of Parchees, with a clever comedy song, "They Say I'm Drunk." This was followed by son, cousin of the bride, flower girl.

The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Mr. Henry Carlton, of Warsaw, N. C. The ushers were the brothers of the bride, Mr. Goodwin Davis Elisworth, of the sity, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bride groom's best man was his brother, Mr. Henry Carlton, of Warsaw, N. C. The ushers were the brothers of the bride, Mr. Goodwin Davis Elisworth, of the sity, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the kingle dancing and the disposal of the management of the bridesmaids, and Miss Ethel May Johnston, cousin of the bridesmai dance and promenade music, while a specially appointed banquet hall has been set apart at the hotel for the conven-

Patrick J. Haltigan and Thomas P Kennelly are the chairman of the reception and floor committee, respectively, train, and trimmed with princess lace and trance to the hotel be used by patrons seed pearls. Her bouquet was of Bride of the ball. This will permit of cas, across and lilies of the valley. Her veil cas to the red room, on the first floor, of tulle was held with a single cape jas-which, in view of the large number of which, in view of the large number of The matron of honor wore a gown of corn-colored voile. The bridesmaids wore white embroidered batiste, with vellow cess to the elevators going to the ball-

There will be twenty-two dances on the

Mr. and Mrs. George William McLanshan have closed their house and gone to their country place, "Knollgift," at Catskill, N. Y., to spend the spring season before going to spend the summer at Watch Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Southard Parker announce the engagement of their daughter Belle to Mr. Roscoe Calvin North, of Selins Grove, Pa. The wedding will take

An attractive wedding was celebrated in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Paul Frederick Tricou, in Cleveland Park, A luncheon is being given at The Oc- last evening, when her daughter Mae was Church, Washington.

The bride was given in marriage by he usin, Mr. Henri Pierre Tricou, of San Francisco, Cal., and was attended by he sister, Miss Tricou, who wore a white lingerie princess gown and carried Mar

The bride wore an empire robe of ivory white poplin, which was completely coered by her long tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias. Mrs. Tricou was gowned in an apricot empire dress of soft silk covered with cluny lace, F. Jerome Starck, of Cleveland, Ohio was best man. After a Southern trip, Mr. and Mrs.

A concert will be given in the parish hall of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church this of the church by the Ministering Chil-

Mrs. H. G. Hollenberg is the guest of Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts and her Mrs. J. A. Shean, 1738 Fifteenth street

LANSBURGH & BRO. 420-426 Seventh St. N. W.

WHITE GOODS. 40c White Linen, 29c.

20c White Dotted Swiss, 121/2c. dots, including the popular pin dot; for waists and dresses. This 121C

100 Pieces 36-inch-wide Sea Island Nainsook Neatly boxed in 12-yard pieces, soft, silk fin

$2.50 and $3.00 piece

DULIN & MARTIN CO.

Gifts for Spring Brides.

WE ARE in complete season of spring weddings. Every line is replete with worthful suggestions for those in search of Bridal Gifts.

An almost endless variety of useful and beautiful objects, both rich and inexpensive, comprising:

> Decorated China, Rich Cut Glass, Gold Glass, Rock Crystal Glass, Sterling Silver, Art Pottery, Novelties in Brass, Bronze and Copper, Gas Portables, Electroliers, &c.

Your inspection is invited.

Dulin & Martin Co. Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, &c., 1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

The Apollo Player Piano

Represents all that is possible to produce the most artistic effects with the most simple mechanism.

It also possesses two features which no other playe piano has. Its transposin mouthpiece will play the mu sic in five keys. It has a rang of 88 notes. No other playe piano has a range of over &

923-25 Penna. Ave.

Knights of Columbu

Charity Ball To-night New Willard Hote

dance numbers, each followed by a pron nade. Two musical organizations and band. Tickets on sale at T. Arthur Smith's, 14

F street; Willard Hotel news stand, and ballroom door to-night. "The greatest of these is Charity."

is the preference of the particular for tal use. Mild and soft, delightfully palatable. I packed in NEW glass only, scaled at the spring Coase of 12 half gallons, $3

Thompson Pharmac Frank C. Henry, Prop. 703 15t

M. T. FUSSELL 1427 N. Y. Ave. 'Phone M. 1513

A Bountiful Luncheon Business Men and Shopping Ladies 12 TO 3 DAILY, APRIL 20 TO 25, INC. BANQUETING HALL Y. M. C. A. 1736 G STREET NW. Benefit Garfield Memorial Hospital. Patronage the Public and the D. A. R. earnestly so-

Artistic Manicuring, 25c EXPERIENCED OPERATORS

HATTIE M. SHACKLETTE

'Phone M. 3474